- Time Frame
 - The relocatees' sea voyage began in late July 1953 in Inukjuak where they boarded the C.D. Howe.
 - In late August the C.D. Howe arrived at Pond Inlet and picked up the 3 additional Inuit families from Pond Inlet.
 - One group arrived at Grise Fjord in late August 1953 while the second group arrived at Resolute Bay on September 7, 1953, as they had to change ships from the C.D. Howe to a ship called the d'Iberville.
